Memo. to Mr. C. B. Underhill,

President. Loft, Incorporated:

> LEASE, Mr. Underhill, see that in the stores we operate that the small buyer-in other words, the man who buys ten cents' worth of candy-is not discriminated against. I happened into one of the retail candy stores that is not operated by us, the other day, and I found a portion of the store had been set aside for people who want ten cents' worth of candy. The Salesladies are in-structed to send the small buyer to this counter. Personally, I do not think it good business to discriminate against a small buyer. I think that in these broad United States, where a person buys ten cents' worth of candy to-day, he may be a $10.00 buyer tomorrow, and I therefore do not think that a man who spends ten cents should be "shown up." This business of ours has been built up by treating every customer alike, whether they spend ten cents or $10.00 over our counters, so if you do not mind, please see that we do not discriminate against buyers at our stores. Let us take the big, broad-gauged policy of equality and fairness to all.

A century ago, at the time of the French Revoluthe French flag was built up on the lines of LIBERTY, EQUALITY and FRATERNITY. This is their slogan. Let ours be QUALITY, COURTESY and SERVICE TO ALL.
